ABSTRACT TEMPLATE

TITLE OF PAPER

__Surname INITIALS__[1], Surname INITIALS[1] and Surname INITIALS[2]

1. Unit, State (Or: Department, Faculty, University)
2. Unit, State (Or: Department, Faculty, University)

Introduction:

The abstract of an article should be its clear, concise and accurate summary. It should be single-spaced in 11-point Arial. Be sure to adhere to the word limitation for the abstract (300 words). Use of abbreviations should be avoided and the references should not be cited in the abstract. Ideally, each abstract should include background, objective(s), Method(s), Results(s) and Conclusion. However, the heading can vary, but must state the purpose of the study, details of the participants, measurements, methods, main findings and conclusion.

Objectives:
A brief description of the background of the study.

Methods:
A brief description of the materials and experimental method used.

Results:
The result should relate the observations and/or data collected during experiment/study. It should be concise and informative and only the most important results need to be included.

Conclusion:
A brief summary of the essential results that are demonstrated by the data collected. It should also briefly state the implications of these results.

Keywords: paragraph; single; summarizes; word limitation (maximum 5 words).

*Please provide key words in alphabetical order separated with semicolons, not included in the title.
