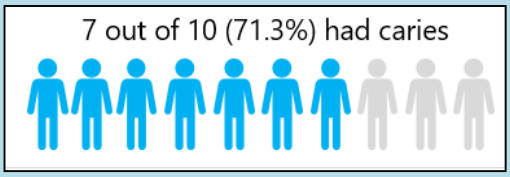
NATIONAL ORAL HEALTH SURVEY OF PRESCHOOL SURVEY OF PRESCHOOL CHILDREN (NOHPS 2015) FACTS AND FIGURES

MALAYSIA



9.8% A substantial proportion had dental abscess

64.9% Require dental treatment in deciduous teeth

63.6% Need restorations for carious deciduous teeth

12.1% Need extraction for carious deciduous teeth

0.1% Require treatment in both deciduous and permanent dentition

0.1% Need restorations for carious permanent teeth

7.0% Need extraction for carious permanent teeth

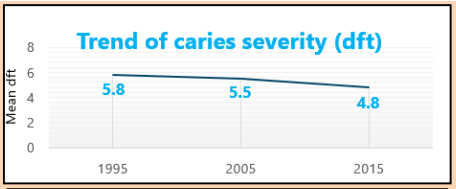
In the last two decades, there was a decreasing trend of caries prevalence

COMPARING TREND



In the last two decades, there was a slow reduction in caries severity (dft)

Handicapping dento-facial anomalies

8 children affected with cleft anomaly for every 10,000 children

3 children affected with isolated cleft lip for every 10,000 children

1 children affected with isolated cleft palate for every 10,000 children

5 children affected with combined cleft lip and palate cleft lip for every 10,000 children

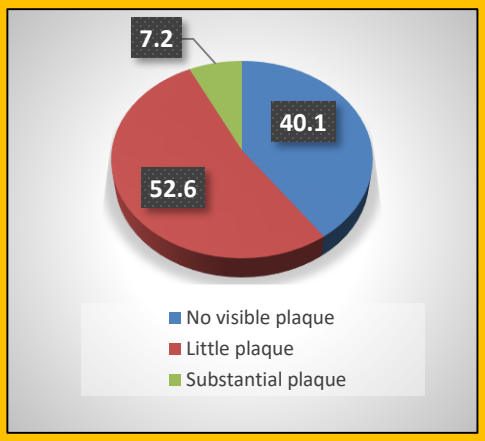
Oral Cleanliness



B rush your child teeth 2x a day for 2 minutes, in the morning and before bedtime.

R inse your child mouth after meal

S top unhealthy snacking especially between meals

U se a fluoridated toothpaste

H ave your child dental check-up annually

The Oral Health Division, MOH would like to thank the Director of Health Malaysia for his permission to publish these findings of NOHPS 2015.
Project reference number:
NOHPS 2015: (NMRR-13-1642-18756)
MREC No: (KKM/NIHSEC/P14-864)

Contributing Authors: Nurul Ashikin Husin, Wan Salina Wan Sulaiman, Hasni Md. Zain, Nama Bibi Saerah Abdul Karim, Khairol Niza Ahmad, Zaihan Othman, Yaw Siew Lian, Natifah Che Salleh, Habibah Yacob, Jessina Sharis Othman, Nurrul Ashikin Abdullah, Rapeah Mohd Yassin, Rozihan Mat Hasan@Husin,Ting Teck Pei, Noor Aliyah Ismail

Project Funded by:
Ministry of Health Malaysia